The Bethany College Social Work Department encourages you to save the dates of November 12 & 13, 2009 for its 2nd Annual Symposium at the Mountainside Conference Center located adjacent to the Bethany College Campus on Route 88N, Bethany, West Virginia. This dynamic event draws practitioners, students, and educators from around the tri-state area, creating a collective forum for the exploration of diversity in the work place of nurses and social workers.

Based on the theme “Diversity Issues in Health and Human Services,” the 2009 Symposium seeks to highlight the importance of diversity as it relates to health and social issues. Information provided by presenters who are experts in their fields will assist nurses and social workers to stay current in their field. Conference attendees will use the information gleaned from the conference to make a difference in the lives of people residing in the region from all economic levels, ethnicities, ages and backgrounds.

This year’s Symposium will include a Thursday evening Reception followed by a 60-minute networking session. A total of 12 CEUs for Social Workers and 14.4 CEUs for nurses are available during this 2-day event. In the following pages you will find additional information regarding the 2009 Symposium including overnight accommodations, featured presenters, the conference schedule, and a registration form.
