2004 BETHANY ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES ANNOUNCED

BETHANY, W. VA. – Bethany has announced that three individuals and one team will be inducted into the Bethany College Athletics Hall of Fame during Homecoming Weekend (Oct. 1-2). The Class of 2004 includes Lawrence Wineke, J. Cady Montgomery Rowe and Lori Woods. In addition, the National Champion 1994 men’s soccer team will also be inducted at the ceremony.

Wineke, a 1975 graduate of Bethany, was a four-year member of both the football and baseball teams and captained both squads. He earned All-Conference honors in football in 1974 and in baseball during his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. He was a force for the baseball team, as he led the conference in home runs, runs batted in and extra base hits as a senior.

Wineke is presently a science teacher at Calvert Hall (Md.) High School. He is also an assistant track and field coach at Goucher College in Towson, Md. Wineke resides in Baltimore, Md, with his wife, Sue. They have two children, Michael and Ryan.

Montgomery Rowe, or “Bit,” as she was called during her college days, graduated from Bethany in 1983 and was a standout with the Bison volleyball and softball teams. She was the volleyball team co-captain and MVP in 1981 and 82 and was second team all-conference in 1980. She helped lead the Bison to three consecutive conference championships in volleyball from 1979-81. In 1981, the team was the Division III West Virginia State Champion. In softball, she was first team all-conference in 1979 and 1981 and the 1981 team won the conference crown.

Montgomery Rowe currently lives in Punta Gorda, Florida, with her husband Harry D. Rowe. She has worked for Federal Express for the past 10 years. She also continued her athletic career by serving as an assistant coach with the Central Connecticut State University volleyball team for two years and another two seasons as head volleyball and softball coach at Hartford Women’s College.

Woods is a 1993 Bethany graduate and was a four-year member of the softball team and three-year member of the basketball team. She captained both teams as a senior and was a first-team All-President’s Athletic Conference (PAC) pick in softball in 1991, 92 and 93. She was the PAC MVP in 1991.

Woods, who attended Buckeye Local High School, currently lives in Myrtle Beach, S. C., and works as a Horry County 911 Dispatcher/Emergency Medical Technician.

After 15 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and one second-place finish (1982), the 1994 Bison men's soccer team overcame many obstacles, including three shootouts, to win its first National Championship. All five tournament games went to at least double overtime and three were decided by shootouts. The Championship game, against Johns Hopkins, went to double overtime with the Bison coming out on top, 1-0.

The goalie from that team, Malleh Sallah, was the PAC MVP in 1994 and also earned All-America honors. Nine players from that team were named All-Conference; Sallah, Dave Gross, Shon Meale, Dave Farmer, Eric Fries, Dawda Njie, Sainey Sanyang, Aaron Squire and Seth Zaharako.
